

After receiving a series of shots in my lower back my pain greatly decreased and I have been able to return to normal work activities. Through my activities and workout with Plex my back is getting stronger, but I continue to experience decreased leg strength in my left leg.

Rex Spain

---